PARIS DECLARATION
90% of people on treatment with suppressed viral loads
90% of people who know their HIV-positive status on treatment
90% of people living with HIV knowing their status

WE, THE MAYORS, COMMIT TO
1. End the AIDS epidemic by 2030
2. End the AIDS epidemic by 2030, when rapidly reduce new HIV infections and AIDS-related deaths, reducing from 500,000-200,000 on the Fast-Track to ending AIDS by 2030. We commit to public access to testing, treatment, and prevention services. We will end stigma and discrimination.
3. "The aim of the centre of everything we do
We will focus, especially, on people who are at risk of acquiring HIV, and we will respect human rights and issues for them. We will be solidarity and in partnership with our communities to help achieve global support for the rights of women, children, and for sustainable development of these communities.
4. Address the causes of risk, vulnerability, and discrimination
We will design programs to help our communities, outreach groups, and other NGOs to address factors that make people vulnerable to HIV, and other diseases. We will implement effective community interventions, with many voluntary organizations, and we will work with vulnerable people, people with disabilities, people with HIV, on their right to be respected, and on their social and economic rights.
5. Our AIDS response for positive social transformation
Our response will be innovative, social transformation to foster societies that are equitable, inclusive, responsive, resilient, and sustainable. We will implement policies and interventions, including prevention, treatment, and services that are respectful of human rights, and that protect the delivery of services, including harm reduction, and other services.
6. Build and accelerate an appropriate response to local needs
We will engage and promote solutions that are creative, safe, accessible, equitable, and free of stigma and discrimination. We will encourage the development of innovative solutions and interventions to end the epidemic by 2030.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SECTOR INVESTMENT
We call on all levels of government to support universal access to HIV prevention, treatment, and care services. We call on all stakeholders to support the implementation of the Paris Declaration on Fast-Track Cities: Ending the AIDS Epidemic 2014.
